WEGENSTREITS GUESTS

crazy and acrobatic stilttheatre Show

Love and anarchy on stilts - when acrobatics becomes poetry

Everywhere the crazy figures in tails and on stilts appear the public is full of enthusiasm. They don't talk, but they communicate a great deal. They find everything new and every reaction astounding.

They are artists on their stilts and poets in their hearts. They don't stop at anything or anyone - they climb into other people's apartments on the first floor, exchange a bicycle for a piece of furniture, hi-jack busses and trams.

But they give everything back - usually to someone else, just to give pleasure and that, amidst the chaos they create - the nicest since fear of it began - seems to be their only aim.

THE MUDJUMPING

acrobatics become poetry – Comedy Streettheatre

They are vagabonds, tramps - always on the move and nowhere at home – and they look like it too. They live from showing what they can do, and they can do a lot.

Skippers, story tellers, acrobats, drummers, singers..... but really not just that, because that is not what it is all about.

It is more about what is in between - between the tricks, between the tramps, between Irrwisch and the public, between the lines.

Because what is important is not what you can do, but the way that you do it. 'The element of suspense in a somersault is only partly in the somersault, the other part is the game of how to get there and get away again' (Schtan Mowetz).

And thus acrobatics become poetry - - a moving story about life on the streets and elsewhere.

NUJORK DENZING KWIIN

clownesque Stilt dance-Musicshow in 70ies style

Coming straight from the disco scene of suburbia, a group of dancers and their DJ with his sound system take us along to a trip into town.

With their garishly colored outfits and cult movie quotes, our disco dudes resemble comic strip heroes representatives from a weird and freaky world.

Watchers-on are drawn into the IMP's spell, performed on stilts and ground, and soon all on the streets are tapping their feet and smiling as good vibes spread through town until everybody's dancing along...."

GRANNIES

- old ladies wanna have fun!

Urban space is cruelly in need of outrageous old ladies. And here they are! Insecurity is spreading; the borders of decency are crossed with relish. Better not mess with these old ladies. With typical wit and physical exertion, Irrwisch shows that pensioners could also use a riot.

Coached by "Cacahuète" theatrical provocateurs, the granny gang embarks on rule-breaking with their little hats and brollies. Even better than the old Monty Python concept: because this geriatric gang is real, they're here and there's going to be trouble.

THE BOBBIES

rather unconventional keepers of public order, chaos de luxe

Actually, these three strange police men on stilts with their helmets are coming from Austria but they appropriated not only the typical British politeness, but also the "special" Island-Humor...

The "Bobbies" are rather unconventional keepers of public order; they show how effective communication does not need a single word, but above all, they produce a lot of irresistible charming chaos and fun.

The typical Irrwisch humour mixed with the famous British humour is creating new joyful, absurde and crazy situations! Very nice, very british!

Press:

Quirk, crazy, kooky and comic. These are the best words to describe the Austrian trio Irrwisch. They combine theatricality with physical performance, and an offbeat sense of humour to deliver a witty and intelligent performance. HIFA Review

Headlining the four hours of fun were Austrian Group Irrwisch wowing the adults and amazing the youngsters on the market place. City Life, Ashton

Irrwisch turned yesterday the pedestrian precinct upside down. The group showed improvisation theatre of first rate, they amazed with acrobatics, spontaneity and funny jokes. Neue Zeit

"They are really crazy, these Austrians, this is sure. But they are it in a very exciting, smart and buffoon way..." Südkurier

With their show they caused hurly -burly with funny and anarchic jokes. The public was out of their mind with joy. Esslinger Zeitung

"Irrwisch made funny ironic macho-like jokes and filled the public with enthusiasm" Mannheimer Morgen

"Magnificent the pyromaniacs of Theatre Irrwisch. With the mysticism of the flaming elements, with acrobatic fire-wheels and synchronous light-spirals the Austrian street artists fascinate the public, send out their sparks and kindle the flames of full joie de vivre." Kleine Zeitung

An effervescent performance, tender and exciting. Irrwisch offers lively, infectious street theatre – delightful, eccentric and clever! La Strada

With the production Wegenstreits Guests Irrwisch belonged this year to the clear public favourite of the Festival!" Viathea Görlitz

"cocky streettheatre! Badisches Tagblatt

"they entertain, they amuse, they enchant and they provoke" Neue Braunschweiger

"they played in a powerful fascinating and entertaining way in a combination of acrobatics and spontaneity" Sydsjælland Tidende

The charming Bobbies on Stilts and the „unruly“ Grannies of the Austrian Streettheatre Irrwisch were mixing upside down the citycentre and left Pforzheim in the best of moods. PZ News
